The Tourism Committee of the Corporation of St. George reserves the right to Vet / and interview each applicant

There is a fee of $150.00 for certification as a Official Tour Guide

Information for Potential Tour Guides

- The Corporation of St. George specifies that all applicants must be a Blue Flag Ambassador as well and will be asked to produce their blue flag certificate.
- Attendees are mostly looking to be "entertained", not informed. There is a balance, personality of the guide is just as important as knowing the facts. Due to this the Corporation recommends that you take a tour with one of the established tour guides in St. George.
- If the applicant is successful in passing the test, they will need to take a qualifying tour with an adjudicator before becoming certified.
- The pass rate for the test is 95%
- All Applicants will be subjected to a Police Background Check
- All guides must follow the guidelines set forth by the Corporation of St. George, failure to abide by the guidelines will see the tour guide certification revoked. (Guideline will be provided upon certification)
- All tour guides must wear their blue flag badge as well as a UNESCO Tour Guide Badge, which the Corporation will provide upon completion of program.
